Laithwaite's

LIVE

LONDON 2015

Welcome to Laithwaite's Live 2015.

Here we are, under the Arches at Vinopolis, for the final time. Not the last Laithwaite's LIVE London, I hasten to add (a new venue is already lined up for 2016) but after six fabulous years here we wanted to go out with a bang!

So, we're celebrating with our biggest and best event yet. Particularly as this is my 50th year in wine and with impeccable timing, Laithwaite's was crowned Wine Merchant of the Year 2015 at the International Wine

Challenge – that's the wine world's equivalent of the Oscars, Emmys, BAFTAS, rolled into one!

We're very chuffed and everyone here has played a part in our success. You'll meet plenty of winemaking friends – old and new – from far and wide. Over 100 wines from 15 countries and dozens of regions – many you'll be familiar with, some perhaps less so!

Like Moldova! Because it's nice to go off the beaten track. And be a little different. That's why we also picked up the Eastern European Specialist award this year. I'd strongly recommend booking a seat in The Tasting Theatre where you can hear first hand from our buyer Beth about just how good Moldovan wines are.

Of course Laithwaite's Live is not just about wine – there is excellent beer, olives, cheese and, I think, a lovely, convivial vibe. And to keep that vibe fizzing, this year we've set up a bar dedicated entirely to bubbly. Do drop by for a refreshing pick-me-up – if you see me there, I'll happily raise a glass with you.

And talking of raised glasses, don't forget to make the most of your 10% discount and free delivery by placing an order before heading home. And please vote for your favourite wine. We'll announce the winners before the end of the session.

Thanks for coming. I hope you have a great time.

Tony Laithwaite, Founder

P.S. Any questions – just grab a smiling, knowledgeable Laithwaite's Wine Advisor. They're easy to spot!

TASTING THEATRE

Hi, join me in the Tasting Theatre this year at Laithwaite's Live where I'll be compering six different sessions hosted by our friends and experts. To secure your seat in one of our six FREE sessions, visit the Box Office, just outside the theatre. Early reservations essential!

SESSION 1.

In association with Pong Cheese

Lunchtime	12.15 - 12.30pm
Evening	5.45 - 6.00pm

Cheese and cheers

Join the fragrant experts from Pong Cheese and our own venerable oenophile Martin Campion as they divulge some perfect sweet wine and cheese pairings that you, and your next round of dinner party guests, will thoroughly enjoy.

SESSION 4.

Presented by Beth Willard

Lunchtime	1.30 - 1.45pm
Evening	7.00 - 7.15pm

From Moldova with love

Our buyer Beth Willard combines fluency in several languages with an expert palate and an enthusiasm for the wines of Moldova. Come and taste world-class wines from the country Beth says is 'not only shaped like a bunch of grapes but has more vines per person than anywhere else'.

SESSION 2.

With Barbara Laithwaite

Lunchtime	12.30 - 12:45pm
Evening	6.00 - 6.15pm

England's sparkling success

Barbara Laithwaite planted 4,000 vines in the Chilterns in 2003 and ten years later began winning top awards for her impeccable Wyfold sparkling wine. Join Barbara and her son Tom in this informative Q&A session and taste the newly released (frankly dazzling) 2011 vintage.

SESSION 5.

In association with Green & Black's Organic

Lunchtime	2.00 - 2.15pm
Evening	7.30 - 7.45pm

Green & Black's; Reds & Whites

When the taste experts from renowned chocolatiers Green & Black's get together with our own in-house wine educators, you're in for a tasty time. So, leave any preconceptions at the door and discover some thrilling flavour pairings that may never have crossed your mind.

SESSION 3.

Presented by Jean-Marc Sauboua

Lunchtime	1.00 - 1.15pm
Evening	6.30 - 6.45pm

Take a walk on the wine side

The affable Jean-Marc is our in-house Trophy-winning winemaker. With the sophistication of fine Bordeaux, the charm of Burgundy and the effervescence of vin mousseux, he will decant more than a magnum's worth of wine wisdom and advice in a lively and memorable 15 minutes. Expect queues.

SESSION 6.

Presented by Davy Zyw

Lunchtime	2.30 - 2.45pm
Evening	8.00 - 8.15pm

In conversation with John Barleycorn

Our buyer and seasoned imbibor of whisky, Davy Zyw teams up with John Barleycorn in this lightening tour of the Highlands, Lowlands and Isles. Recognising the constraints of time and social convention, he will select just three single malts to taste ... but my goodness, what wonderful whiskies they are!

HOW TO TASTE WINE

STEP 1. Look for colour and clarity

Hold your glass over a white background. It should look bright and inviting. For reds, a purple rim indicates youth; a garnet rim suggests age. Crisp young whites are usually pale. Older, richer or sweet whites have deeper colour.

STEP 2. Sniff the wine - twice

Sniff the wine before your swirl it. First impressions count - it should smell clean and attractive. Swirl the glass and sniff again. You'll notice more. What do the aromas remind you of? Fruits? Flowers? Spices? There are no right or wrong answers.

STEP 3. Give it a good rinse around

Take a mouthful and rinse it around. Note the initial sensation. Dry or sweet, firm or smooth, fruity or savoury, crisp or creamy? Are these elements nicely balanced? OK you can spit now (in the spittoons!). Does the flavour linger pleasantly? That's a sign of a good wine!

STEP 4. Note your findings

Writing a few words helps you recall which wines you loved most. You may even want to rate each wine on a scale of 1-10. If your unsure mark your first wine as your benchmark and go up and down from there as you continue to taste new wines.

FOR SPECIAL FRIENDS

FRANCE

What makes France the greatest wine producing country on earth? Well, for a start, France has Champagne, Bordeaux, Burgundy, the Rhône, the Loire and Alsace. Not bad! And then there's that massive expanse of vineyards in the south known as the Midi. The Midi is as innovative as it is diverse and is the single largest wine region in the world, making more wine annually than the entire USA. Each of these classic French regions is represented here today so take a tour and try our wonderful 35 wine selection along the way. Abi Hirshfeld - Wine Buying Director.

Le Chai au Quai

This is a boutique winery like no other – a haven of creativity and innovation. No winemaking rule is held as sacred, it is there to be questioned, explored and adapted accordingly. The Chai's ultimate aim is for our top winemakers Jean-Marc Sauboua and Mark Hoddy to create Grand Cru-style wines at affordable prices – to show that it's not what appears on the label that always counts, but the liquid that is in the bottle.

Le Chai is a beautiful grand cellar in a magical spot on the banks of the Dordogne, just a hop, skip and a jump from the charming town of Saint-Emilion. With no vineyards attached, the winery has the ultimate freedom to buy in grapes from wherever it chooses – wherever, in fact, it finds the finest quality, be that from Bordeaux vineyards nearby or from as far afield as the depths of the Roussillon.

It's true that quality potential is determined in the vineyard, but it's realised in the cellar.

And Le Chai is the antithesis of ordinary cellars that churn out wines by the hectolitre. Every wine from here is a little masterpiece made by winemakers in pursuit of perfection.

Fairly recently renovated, Le Chai au Quai is kitted out with the latest equipment. We installed lots of small, temperature controlled, stainless steel fermentation tanks, so the team can make many different little batches. We've also renovated the old concrete tanks and put those to good use too. And of course there are plenty of smart new barrels offering a variety of toasty flavours.

Pop by our stand and say bonjour. We'll give a little taste of Le Chai magic and show you that truly great wines don't always have to cost the earth.

“Think of Le Chai au Quai as a ‘Grand Wine Kitchen’. JMS and Mark Hoddy work there like chefs, mixing, blending and creating a whole rainbow of different and exciting wines.” Tony Laithwaite

ITALY

Welcome to the 'land of the vine'. Nowhere on earth offers so wide a variety of wine styles or such generosity of flavour as Italy. And we've done our best to give you a perfect snapshot here – from mountain-ringed Friuli in the north (famed for its crisp, classy whites) to the rich, warm flavours of the south. Check out too, the smart, dinner party wines courtesy of Tuscany's star winemaker Paolo Masi and Piedmont's Paolo Monti – plus delicious, easy drinking crowd pleasers from great value Sicily. Davy Zyw, Wine Buyer

14 The Real Olive Company

Since The Real Olive Company's beginning in Bristol's St Nicholas Market in 1998 a lot has changed, but our values have remained the same; to source and supply the best quality olives and Mediterranean foods.

Our olives remain the same delicious fruits the ancients knew, growing in the old unhurried way in the same Mediterranean groves. Using time honoured methods we prepare them at our accredited production site in Bristol, and then package them with the greatest care to ensure that they reach you in the perfect condition. We're proud to call our olives 'real food for real people'.

Try wines from every corner of Spain ...

The shimmering blue sea, dramatic fog-enveloped mountains, plains of ochres and browns: Spain is a vast land of contrasting colours and light. The land of Miró, Picasso, and Almodovar; of passionate flamenco in Andalucía and Hemingway's Pamplona and San Fermín in northern Navarra; of fresh cold fino with fried fish in Jerez, and a bloody juicy side of beef in the Basque country. Behind these extremes, also reflecting the diversity of Spanish styles and traditions, is wine. Whether you prefer a glass of cold, tropical Albariño or a mature, spicy Rioja Reserva, Spain has never been more exciting and vibrant. Salud!

PORTUGAL

As you may have guessed, we love Portuguese wines, and we have really got behind them over the last decade. What's the appeal? Originality for one – there are grapes here you just won't see elsewhere. Quality too – the country is packed with great winemaking talent and some really old, breathtakingly beautiful vineyards. And value? Undoubtedly some of the best in Europe! Come and put that claim to the test. Hilario Ribeiro, Buyer

AUSTRIA & GERMANY

Riesling is described as 'indisputably the greatest white wine grape in the world' by Jancis Robinson MW and we would agree. And while it grows elsewhere, nothing comes close to matching the quality of fine German Rieslings. Reichsrat von Buhl represents a fantastic combination of history, pedigree and exceptional vineyards.

Neighbouring Austria's star white is Grüner Veltliner and our growers, Winzer Krems are situated in a town on the Danube with 800 years' of winemaking tradition. If you are looking to discover new flavours at Laithwaites Live, there's every chance these wines will surprise you and delight you.

HUNGARY

For centuries, Hungary has been the star of Eastern Europe with the most advanced wine culture in all respects – from its range of distinctive native grapes to its understanding of terroir and its wine laws and customs. These days, Hungary is best known for its superbly well-made table wines. Yet, among its greatest treasures are the legendary sweet wines of Tokaji. The first wine to be knowingly made from ‘nobly rotten’ grapes – predating even Bordeaux’s Sauternes.

ARGENTINA & CHILE

Argentina is a country of almost supernatural beauty. From sky-high Salta to vast Mendoza and beyond, there is no shortage of ideal vine growing terroir. Low fertility soils, cool mountain nights, sunny days and low humidity all contribute to magnificent quality Malbecs, terrific Torrontés and more.

Beth Willard, Buyer

If you like your wines to taste overtly fruity, chances are you're a Chilean fan. Yes, other wines can be really fruity too but there is a purity and freshness to the fruit in Chilean wine that no one else quite matches. And with newer, cooler regions such as Leyda providing wines with more elegance than ever before, the fan club continues to grow.

ARGENTINIAN  STREET FOOD

PORTEÑA

"While Argentinian food (and the vibrant Latin culture) is so strongly represented all over the world, it was barely visible in the UK a few years ago. An idea was born! Porteña is named to honour the people of Buenos Aires and to bring an Argentinian flavour not only to the UK but the World. Run by three friends who work hard and love what they do, our menu is built on traditional Argentinian flavours and the highest quality ingredients. The Porteña experience is about all things Latin; the food, the music, the art, and the personality!" Porteña.

SOUTH AFRICA

Winemaking since 1655, South Africa is the oldest of the 'New World' producing countries. Yet it's only in the last 20 years that things have really taken off with phenomenal development on an epic scale.

Passionate winemaker Bruce Jack has been one of the most prominent champions of change and his ground-breaking Flagstone Wines are represented here today by classic Chenin Blanc and Pinotage plus two delicious new cuvées. Davy Zyw, Buyer

NEW ZEALAND

Sheep outnumber locals 10 to 1 in New Zealand but did you know there are 80 bottles of wine produced annually, per head of population?

And as our premium selection shows, it's not all Sauvignon Blanc – Pinot Noir, Gewurztraminer and Riesling too are making their mark. Try them all from our old mates, Hunter's, Seifried and Forrest Estate.

With apologies to Slim Dusty, there was a track winding back to a not-so-old fashioned shack called RedHeads Studio in the heart of the McLaren Vale. We opened it as a winery-with-a-difference in 2002. Thereafter, a few local winemakers would gather in the evening, after downing tools at their day jobs with big wine corporations. Here they could forget about formulaic wines, be creative and make the sort of wine they really wanted to make.

The guys knew growers all around South Australia, so they tapped them up for amazing deals on the finest grapes and crafted some brilliant wines. The concept worked so well RedHeads outgrew its original premises and moved on to a bigger place. Same thing kind of happened to the winemakers and they too branched out to wine sheds of their own.

So just recently we decided it was time to ring the changes and move to the Barossa (we'd always fancied it), next to all those smart wineries with Porsches out the front! Let's just say our shiny little tin shed doesn't go unnoticed.

"Here they can forget about formulaic wines, be creative and make the sort of wine they really want to make".

Iain Muggoch,
General Manager RedHeads Studio

We're still making the classic wines from the McLaren Vale but we're adding new wines from the Barossa too.

We're stoked to have Dan Graham on board now as head winemaker. Although he's worked around the world he's been drawn back to The Barossa, or 'the centre of the wine universe' as we like to call it. Dan makes friends everywhere he goes and we reckon he knows about half the people in these parts (the important ones anyway) and that opens doors to the best grapes.

Come to the stand and meet the winemakers, try the wines - old favourites like 'Barrel Monkeys' Shiraz and new ones: 'Dogs of the Barossa' and 'Princess of Thieves'. We'll offer you some nibbles and invite you to have a funky photo taken with the RedHeads Studio Team .

Look forward to seeing you.

Delivery to UK addresses only (excluding Channel Islands and BFPO addresses). Standard delivery takes 3 working days (delivery to offshore islands, NI, Scottish Highlands and some other areas of Scotland may take a few days longer). Orders for two or more cases may arrive separately. You can track your order online by logging into your account and clicking on 'My Orders' or by calling 03330 148 198. In the unlikely event of wines becoming unavailable, a substitute of similar style and of equal or greater value will be supplied. If you are unhappy with any substitutions you receive we will arrange to collect them from you (free of charge) and replace the bottles or give you a refund as appropriate. If you would rather that we didn't substitute, please tick 'No substitutes' on your order form, or let our operator know. You may cancel your order up to and including 14 calendar days after the day on which you receive your order. Please let us know if you wish to cancel by contacting our Customer Service team by phone, email or completing the cancellation form available online at laithwaites.co.uk/cancellationform. Order acceptance and the contract between you and Laithwaite's Wine will only be formed on the despatch to you of the products ordered. Please see laithwaites.co.uk/terms for full terms and conditions. If you have any queries please call 03330 148 198 or email us at customerservice@laithwaites.co.uk. We may monitor and record calls for training purposes. By registering and entering your details you consent to receiving promotional offers from Laithwaite's Wine and other members of the Direct Wines Group. You also agree to the terms of our Privacy Policy and Cookies Policy available at laithwaites.co.uk/privacy. We occasionally make names and addresses (but never email addresses) available to other carefully selected companies whose products or services may interest you. If you do not wish to receive such offers, please write to us at the address below, call 03330 148 198 or email us at customerservice@laithwaites.co.uk. Laithwaite's Wine part of Direct Wines Ltd. Registered in England and Wales. Registered Number 1095091. One Waterside Drive, Arlington Business Park, Theale, Reading, Berkshire, RG7 4SA. A professional photographer will be present at this event. The photographs/videos may be used for marketing and promotion in our publications and on our digital channels. If you do not wish to be photographed please let the event organisers know.
