ROAD SHOW

Welcome to Laithwaite's Wine Roadshow. It's great to be back in Cardiff at such a wonderful venue. We promise to mark our 50th anniversary by bringing you a bigger and better show than ever.

There are more than 80 wines for you to try today. Crisp whites, smooth reds, fortified wines and celebration bubbly too. There isn't a better occasion for you to try before you buy. Plus, when you order 12 bottles of wine at today's event, we'll add three more for FREE! Do take full advantage.

The Tasting Theatre is back, with a special focus on wines from Down Under to celebrate Australia Day. Entry is included in the price of your Roadshow ticket – but you'll need to book early. We'd also love you to try some great Australian wines from our old friend Bob Berton and meet the man himself.

Also, The Ministry of Taste invites you to push your sensory boundaries and explore how different music affects your enjoyment and perception of a wine's flavour (cue UB40 ...).

Did you know we also make our own wine? Visit the stands and meet the teams from our own ground-breaking French and Aussie wineries, Le Chai au Quai and RedHeads, and discover their latest creations.

There's no shortage of lip-smackingly tasty wines to try, but there's more. We also showcase craft beer and spirits plus olives and cheeses. You can also find out about our new flowers and wine gift service – perfect for that special someone with Valentine's Day coming up. Discover our personalised wine box service too, part of our on-going commitment to offering wines that are perfect for your tastes.

Thanks for coming, and don't forget to vote for your favourite wines in the special pods dotted around the venue.

Cheers!

BORDEAUX DIRECT

WHERE IT ALL BEGAN...

50 years ago I took a job at a Bordeaux winery where they made truly great wines. I loved the way everyone's lives were totally wrapped around making THE BEST wine possible.

At the time there was a lot of wine fraud in the UK. So I started bringing back the 'real quality stuff' to my first ever customers. Then I wrote to the papers and lots more people wanted a taste. I borrowed a van, collected my special wines, delivered them – and things really took off.

Today we still know all our winemakers personally and understand the likes of every customer. Wine, done right, really is such a personal thing; it's best that way.

The guys from RedHeads are also here, pouring some of the most awarded wines on the planet and sharing news of their brand new Barossa Valley winery.

MINISTRY OF TASTE MUSIC SESSIONS

Our intrepid gastronomers - the Ministers of Taste - have found a new frontier to boldly go (to).

We have been inspired by our recent explorations into the way sounds can influence our perception of taste. So after extensive research (yes, lying around, drinking wine and listening to music), we are delighted to invite you to join us for a Wine and Music tasting that we hope will amaze you and delight you in equal measure.

Using state of the art individual headphones, you will listen to three very different music tracks while you taste each wine in turn. Will the music change the flavour, or alter how much you enjoy the wine? And if so, how on earth can this actually work?

WSET
WINE & SPIRIT
EDUCATION TRUST

Wine Consultancy

Visit the Wine & Spirit Education Trust's (WSET) Wine Consultancy at Laithwaite's Roadshow for a taste-led voyage of self-discovery. WSET's friendly consultants will take you through some easy taste tests to find out if you are a 'tolerant taster' (nothing makes you wince), a 'balanced taster' (you've a well-balanced palate) or a 'hyper taster' (the sensitive type). Based on the findings, Laithwaite's Tour Guides will show you how to find more of 'your kind of wine'.

Whatever your result, the WSET can help improve your wine tasting skills and knowledge with courses suitable for all, from beginners to advanced.

Here are some simple tips for training your taste buds and sense of smell.

Try different wines side by side, paying attention to the levels of sweetness and acidity; to the flavour characteristics, and to how long the flavours linger after you swallow.

Experiment with food and wine pairings. Try the same wine on its own, followed by three different foods - something acidic, salty, and finally sweet. See how your impression of the same wine changes completely from one food to another.

Avoid chewing gum, brushing your teeth or eating very sweet or spicy food before wine tasting - these things will reduce your ability to taste objectively.

Vote for your wine of the show to win a bottle of Laithwaite Champagne normally £29.99

One lucky person will WIN a bottle of Laithwaite Champagne at each event session

Just vote for your wine of the show and fill in your details at the voting barrels marked on the floor plan!

VOTING

TOM'S 'HOW TO TASTE'

In a few hours you can sample more from the world of wines, beers and spirits in one day than you might otherwise do in a whole year! With this being our 50th year, today promises to be a real celebration. To help you stay the course and cross the finish line in style we have provided spittoons; don't be afraid to use them. (That would be my Top Tip!)

FOOD MATCHING

This year we're encouraging you to think about food pairings while you taste. To prompt discussion, I've included a symbol next to each wine indicating my favourite food match.

See if you agree. There are no right or wrong answers. And if there's a combination I've missed out that you love, do let me know. We really value your feedback.

APERITIF

STEP 1. Eye it up

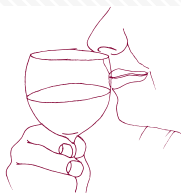

Tilt your glass over a white background. The wine should look bright and tempting. For reds, a purple edge suggests youth; a garnet rim, age. Crisp young whites are usually pale. Older, richer, oaked and 'sweeties' are deeper. Avoid anything murky!

STEP 2. Sniff the wine - twice

Sniff before you swirl the glass. First impressions count - it should smell clean and attractive. Swirl and sniff again.

You'll notice even more. What do the aromas remind you of? Fruits? Flowers? Spices? Be confident. If you smell it - you're right!

STEP 3. Swill & swallow (or spit)

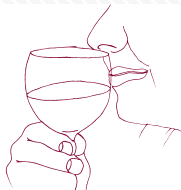

Take a mouthful and rinse it around. Breathe in a little air too if you can without choking (it's a knack). Dry or sweet, firm or smooth, fruity or savoury, crisp or creamy? Is everything nicely balanced? Now spit (in the spittoons!). If the flavour lingers (in a good way) - it's a good wine!

STEP 4. Note your findings

If you have a retentive mind, great. Otherwise, write down what you liked about it. Think about when and where you might enjoy this. Christmas for example. What might it go well with? You may even want to rate each wine on a scale of 1-10 and compare scores just for fun.
